Agenda Item #6: Old Business

- A. Corey Reid of BCA reviewed the status of the Water Systems Improvement Project and the budget. He noted that 1/3 of the main have been installed. Mr. Reid submitted the application for payment from Highlander Construction and an amendment to the contract with BCA. Both were approved. Jim Soule requested that all Highlander change workorders be forwarded to the Board as they are provided to BCA.

Jim Soule made the motion to accept Municipal Solutions Amendment No. 1 adding the MWBE grant administration services, increasing the contract $10,000. Jim Tighe seconded the motion and it passed with all in favor.

Jim Soule made the motion to move forward with a bond resolution and SEQR so that a WIIA application can be submitted before September 9, 2022, for Phase II of the Water Project. Millie Newcomb seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

- B. Mike Sacco noted that members of the Board went to Brownville, NY to look at their water meter system. No action is needed at this meeting.

Agenda Item #7: Water Hook-ups at Selkirk Landing

The Village will not be charging for water hookups at Selkirk Landing if Selkirk Landing installs the meters themselves as in their contract. Mike Sacco requested the Village office fill out the application forms and forward them to the Board for review.

Agenda Item #8: Other

The Board looked over the Public Notice received from NYS DEC regarding Infrastructure grants that are coming up.

Mayor Jan Tighe noted that Oswego County is concentrating ARPA funds on tourism projects, and it is unlikely we would receive them for the wellhead protection study at this time.

Jim Soule made a motion to put the fence contract out to bid. No decision was made at this meeting.

Agenda Item #9: Adjournment

Millie Newcomb made the motion to adjourn at 6:55 PM. Jim Tighe seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

The next monthly meeting of the Water Board will be held August 8, 2022, at 6:30 PM.
